The Three Musketeers "All For One and One For All"

Coleman of "Heart and Soul Services" (626) 335-1740. When children can't read or don't have the "right" tennis shoes, this agency steps in to meet the children's needs. It also assists children through clothing programs, nutrition programs and SOAR, a tutoring program.

Center person in the picture - Barbara Case of Compassion in Action-USA is a skilled personal advocate who assists injured or ill community members' established disability for purposes of income: (SSI, Social Security Disability, California State Disability, or medical care Medi-Cal). She knows how to move quickly and cut through the "Bureaucratic Red Tape." (909) 599-2087.

Right side of picture - Helen Marshall, Director of Services for the Glendora Welfare Association, provides assistance to Glendora residents in emergency situations: food, shelter, utilities, clothing, transportation and rent. (626) 857-1181.

Please contact any (or all three) of the agencies to ask question or provide financial support. Being Non-Profit organizations, they rely on the goodwill of the communities they serve.

The clothing worn by the persons pictured, was supplied by A & A Costumes Galore at 553 North Fleetwell, Azusa, CA. Call Darlene at (626) 633-0713.
